Medical Students and Faculty...regd.

Sir/Madam,

National Academy of Medical Sciences (India), New Delhi is continuously providing a platform for recognizing eminent clinicians and scientists as its Fellows (FAMS) or Members (MAMS). In order to recognize and develop academic linkage with International Medical and Biomedical Scientists, NAMS has invited application forms for NAMS Research Fellowships for Medical Students and young Faculty to inspire the best minds in medical education towards research and innovations and the way forward for Atma Nirbhar Bharat.

Please find enclosed copy of the communication received from Dr. Umesh Kapil, Secretary, NAMS along with guidelines, application forms and other details for your kind perusal and circulation among the Faculty and Post Graduate students.

In order to extend the aforementioned benefits, it has been decided to have a google meet with the Academic Incharges of your respective institutions, where the experts from National Academy of Medical Sciences can interact with them. Accordingly, you are requested to provide the details of the Academic Incharge of your institution through return mail.

Yours faithfully,
